

HUGHES' RECORD IN CAMPAIGN SHOWS HE HAS BEEN ADVOCATE OF ANYTHING TO BEAT WILSON

Grabs at Everything, Says Anything in His Desperate Effort to Become the Next President.

USED ROOSEVELT AS PROGRESSIVE BAIT

Attacks Every Measure Passed by Democrats Regardless of Its Worth; Mind Like Weather Vane.

Verily, never before did a self-stultified anything lead plutocracy in so vain a fight against the hosts of a liberated, enlightened democracy.

The forlornness of the struggle can never condone, but it may account for the most malicious campaign ever waged. Misrepresentation, vilification, abuse, cunning, trickery, knavery, artful dodging and evasion—these are the weapons Mr. General Hughes has used in his vain effort to beat Wilson.

By stress of circumstance a pussy-foot, a mollycoddle, General Anything—Charles E. Hughes—has preached "American Efficiency." By the record of his campaign can you see him as an efficient president? Here is the record in brief:

T. R. Used as Bait.

Uses Roosevelt as bait for progressives while he calls himself only "the representative of the regular republican party."

Hilindly endorses Roosevelt's traitorous Lexington speech; proclaims himself to be "in complete accord with Roosevelt," later under fire repudiates what Roosevelt stands for but hangs on to Roosevelt.

Frames the fake kiss-and-make-up meeting between irreconcilable T. R. and Taft. Fools nobody, disgusts thousands.

When Hughes speaks, the hand plays "Onward Christian Soldiers." Progressives haven't forgotten republicans' ridicule for using that hymn!

Roosevelt has turned so many votes from Hughes that he is suspected of being in the pay of the democratic committee.

Sends a special train of Wall st. women who never voted to tell the women voters of the west how to vote!

"Would wipe out the whole of democratic legislation"—most of which was supported by a majority of republican congressmen.

"Whatever is wrong"—currency reform, rural credits, workmen's compensation, emancipation of child labor, all fundamental planks in the progressive "contract with the people."

Sneers at the child labor law! Refuses to take stand.

Steadily ignores the insistent demand that he take a positive stand on any one solitary debatable matter.

Maintains cowardly silence while the nation faces strike disaster; fails as his party's leader to say what republicans should do.

Discovers a "national exigency" in the eight-hour law—after a majority of republican representatives had voted for it.

Takes three different attitudes on the eight-hour law—each time alienating a new group of voters.

Attacks the eight-hour law through one H. N. Pope, alleged to have the endorsement of the farmers' union. That union passed no such resolution, and repudiated Pope.

Demands "arbitration" of eight-hour law.

HUGHES MONEY CAN'T BE FOUND IN CITY.

Hughes money in betting circles was scarce today and Wilson supporters were unable to place any bets on their favorite. Efforts were made early this afternoon to put money on Wilson, but it was impossible to find a republican taker. Wilson bets stood on the board throughout the morning with no effort on the part of republicans to take them. Democrats offered even money that Wilson will be elected throughout the day.

German Subs in Mexican Waters

International News Service: MEXICO CITY, Nov. 6.—The Mexican foreign office has dispatched a reply tinged with sarcasm to a British note reporting the presence of German submarines in Mexican waters, and declaring that the allies will take drastic action if they received aid from Mexican sources.

The British note furnished the first official confirmation of vague rumors that U-boats have succeeded in reaching the gulf of Mexico. It was transmitted through the American state department and demanded close censorship of messages sent from Mexican wireless stations. Obviously the British government feared a raid on British oil ships leaving the Tampico field.

TO HOARD EVERY DOLLAR OF GOLD

International News Service: WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Officials of the federal reserve system and other men having dominant power in the American financial world, have set about to make the United States "the miser nation."

They have laid plans for this government to hoard every dollar of gold that is now in this country. They say, is the only way to withstand efforts of European nations to draw gold from the United States after the European war is ended.

The first active steps toward this end will be taken within the next few weeks when officials of the federal reserve system will hold three conferences of world-wide importance in Washington.

The federal reserve advisory council, consisting of one representative from each of the 12 federal reserve banks, will sit here Nov. 24. J. P. Morgan is a member of this council.

The federal reserve agents, direct representatives of the government on the boards of 12 reserve banks, will meet here Dec. 4.

The governors of the federal reserve banks will meet here Dec. 15. Each of these bodies will hold joint sessions with the federal reserve board, at which ways and means of handling the gold situation will be determined.

Odts and Ends in the Big Campaign That is Over Tonight

TONIGHT ENDS THE CAMPAIGN. Tomorrow the nation, which has been deliberating most of the time since last June, will go into its little closets, and there by each individual, in secret, prepare its verdict.

Sixteen million people, or thereabout, will have their say, as to who is to be the next president of the United States.

You know your duty. You know down deep in your heart of hearts, the right and wrong of the present campaign, and if you follow that conscience, America has nothing to fear. You will not permit her to be crucified on Europe's cross, nor to have pressed down upon her brow Wall st. crown of thorns.

And this latter is exactly what the opposition to the present administration is seeking to do, no difference how, but only so that it is done.

It is an ugly reflection upon the integrity of American politics when, upon the eve of a national election, federal investigators find it necessary to issue warnings against intimidation of employees by the great corporations of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan—against intimidation and colonization.

But 'tis the old, old story of republicanism. Big business in the saddle and cracking the whip! It is rule or ruin; Hughes by fair means or foul. Coercion, intimidation, mis-

Says Roosevelt is Booked For Secretary of State Job

Announcement Made at New York Sure to Place Indiana in Democratic Column.

International News Service: INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—Theodore Roosevelt will be the next secretary of state if Hughes is elected, according to William A. Prendergast, who presided at a Hughes meeting in New York Saturday night, and the Indianapolis Star, which made the announcement in its column Sunday morning.

This has been suspected for a long time by the public, but Prendergast's announcement Saturday night was the first official word to this effect.

By making the statement that Theodore Roosevelt would be the next secretary of state, Prendergast lost thousands of votes in New York and the east, and the Indianapolis Star unconsciously threw a lot of votes to Wilson in Indiana.

Prendergast also took a lot for granted when he introduced Candidate Hughes to the audience as Pres't Hughes. In its telegraph report of the meeting the Indianapolis Star said:

"The applause swelled of its own accord and was still swelling when Mr. Prendergast tried to stop it to introduce Mr. Hughes. 'He who will now address you,' began Mr. Prendergast, 'needs no introduction. The nation knows him. I, however, shall take the liberty of addressing him as the nation will address him on March 4 next.'"

"Then turning and bowing to Mr. Hughes, he said: 'Mr. President, and the crowd went at it anew. Then when the din subsided, Mr. Prendergast called out, 'Our next secretary of state, Theodore Roosevelt.'"

"If anything had been needed to add volume to the Wilson landslide that one thing needed is herein supplied. The election of Woodrow Wilson, which the people have all along recognized and each day considered with greater seriousness than the day before, means 'peace with honor and permanent prosperity.'"

International News Service: KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 6.—Frank Haskins, 20 years old, son of R. C. Haskins of Chicago, president of the International Harvester Co., is in the custody of private detectives today as a sequel to his attempted elopement with Miss Joy Gardner, a dancer.

Haskins met Miss Gardner at Peoria, Ill., six weeks ago and the little game of hearts soon was transferred to Chicago, where the Haskins family discovered it. As a result Miss Gardner was prevailed upon to leave the city and came here. Haskins followed. So did the detectives at the order of the youth's mother. Haskins was given his choice of returning home or being arrested. He chose to return.

International News Service: CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Private Jacob B. Lewis, first Illinois cavalry, a cousin of Sec'y of War Baker, is in the guard house today. In Peoria, Ill., a new made grave holds the body of the mother for whom Lewis defied his colonel and other regimental officers, knocked down a guard and broke the army regulations. But it was in vain, for his mother was dead when Lewis reached home. So he came back to Chicago and gave himself up to stand court martial and take whatever punishment his love for his mother may bring.

LYNCH NEGRO.

International News Service: BAY CITY, Texas, Nov. 6.—Joe Johnson, a Negro accused of killing a white man, was taken from jail here early today and hanged by a mob.

Wilson to Carry State by 30,000

International News Service: CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Indiana will go for Wilson by 30,000. This is the word telephoned to the western headquarters of the democratic national committee today by Dr. C. E. Strouse, leading progressive, who is touring the Hoosier state for the president. Dr. Strouse was a member of the resolutions committee of the progressive national convention and in 1912 was a member of the committee which notified Col. Roosevelt of his nomination.

"I have just finished campaigning in Porter county, the strongest republican county in Indiana," said Dr. Strouse. "Normally this county goes 1,500 republican. The Hughes leaders are only claiming it by 4,100, while conservative progressives who have a local ticket of their own, say Hughes will not get the county by more than 800. At this rate, they assert, Wilson will carry Indiana by 30,000."

COAL TRAIN RUNS WILD; 7 KILLED

International News Service: ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 6.—Seven men were killed as a result of a wreck early today at Newportage Junction, five miles south of here, on the Newportage branch of the Pennsylvania railroad. The wreck followed a thrilling 10-mile dash down the eastern slope of the Allegheny mountains by a heavy coal train.

The coal train, running wild, crashed into a light engine at the junction, wrecking 47 of the 60 cars in the train. The engines were reduced to scrap and tons of coal piled up caught fire immediately after the crash.

Fire companies were rushed from Altoona and the fire controlled about 8 o'clock. Wrecking crews and a large force of laborers immediately began the work of digging into the mountain of ruins for the bodies of those who lost their lives.

EL PASO REPORTS NOT CONFIRMED

Washington Has Heard Nothing From Americans Reported Killed.

International News Service: WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The first official report dealing with unofficial statements that Villistas killed 12 Americans south of Chihuahua was received by the state department today.

Collector of Customs Cobb at El Paso, forwarded unconfirmed reports that Dr. C. H. Fisher was stabbed to death at Santa Rosalia, and Harry Dechmer and Dr. Frank Well, killed at Guerrero.

Nothing has been heard here from the nine Americans reported to have been killed at Parral.

International News Service: EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 6.—Twelve American citizens have been killed by Villistas in their raids on towns south of Chihuahua, according to information received by federal agents here today.

These include nine Americans at Parral, Dr. C. H. Fisher, stabbed to death at Santa Rosalia, and Harry Dechmer and Dr. Frank Well, killed at Guerrero.

Hope for the safety of the nine Americans known to have been in Parral faded today when it was learned that they attempted to flee from the town in a party by themselves instead of joining the Carranza forces of Gen. Luis Herrera.

It is reported here that Gen. Pershing is preparing to move eastward and take a hand against the Villistas if the reports of the killing of the Americans is confirmed. At Fort Bliss it was said there was no information to give out. It was intimated, however, that such cooperation had been asked by the de facto government.

THE FIGHT IS WON SAYS PREST WILSON.

PREST WILSON—"The fight is won, I fully believe, though I take this means of urging you to renewed exertions and vigilance to see that belated efforts to confuse the public judgment do not succeed."

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES—Mr. Hughes declined to make a formal statement, but told callers he felt certain that people had made up their minds to elect him and that anything he might say or do would be superfluous.
